Mrs. Clarence Pickrell has visiting her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cartwright, of San Antonio, who will spend Easter week here.

Mrs. Mary Watson, who has spent the winter here visiting her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watson, will leave Monday after Easter for her home in York, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Loomis are moving today into their beautiful new home in the 1400 block on North El Paso street. Mr. and Mrs. Loomis will be at home to their friends after Easter.

Miss Josephine Clardy has returned home from a visit of several months in New York.

Mrs. D. B. Smith and guest, Mrs. Jack Grass, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Josephine Morfit, have gone down the Valley Cave ranch in Mexico for several weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myles and family will leave Sunday evening for an extensive trip abroad. They will visit the principal points of interest in Germany, Italy, England, Ireland and Scotland, and will be absent until fall.

Mrs. Frederick Symons, of Toronto, Canada, who has been the charming house guest of Mrs. E. W. S. Neff, and Mrs. Fernando C. Searle, left today for Los Angeles, where she will spend the spring months.

Miss Lily Brown has returned to the city after a year's absence visiting friends and relatives in Oblong, Ill.

Mrs. Henry Forrester will soon arrive from Pasadena, Cal., to visit Mrs. R. Y. Anderson. Mrs. Forrester is the widow of the late Rev. Henry Forrester, who was missionary to Mexico for a number of years. He was also the rector of St. John's Episcopal church at Albuquerque and was widely known throughout the west.

Miss Pearl Berkey, accompanied by her guest, Miss Lois Humrichouser, will spend the week end at Las Cruces, the guests of Miss Lute Foster.

Mrs. Mary C. Overstreet and daughters, Mrs. H. A. Cuddy, and Miss Clara Overstreet, who have been visiting Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Overstreet, left today for California and will return to their homes in the east by way of Salt Lake and Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown have returned from a two weeks' visit down on the west coast of Mexico.

Mrs. A. P. Coles and mother, Mrs. E. M. Bell, and cousin, Mrs. Benjamin Sherrod, have returned from a month's sojourn in California.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Seaton are spending a few weeks at Long Beach, Cal.

Miss Frances Clark, daughter of Judge Leigh Clark, has returned home from New York city, where she has been attending school.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Magruder have returned from San Angelo, where they visited the doctor's father and had a good time fishing.

Mrs. L. C. Van Vleet, of Toledo, O., spent a few days in El Paso en route to Chihuahua, Mexico, to visit her sister, Mrs. J. R. Enlow. While in El Paso, Mrs. Van Vleet was the guest of Mrs. W. L. Tooley.

Mrs. Phill Boller has moved from 101 Wyoming street to 506 1-3 Prospect, where she is now at home to all her friends. Mrs. Boller recently sold her home on North Oregon street to Fred Feldman, who will in the near future erect a business house upon it.

DANCES AND PARTIES.

Mrs. W. H. Aldridge will entertain Saturday afternoon from 1:30 to 6 o'clock with an Easter egg hunt picnic at Washington park. In celebration of the eighth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Sadie Ruth Aldridge. The 40 little guests will assemble at the home of Mrs. Aldridge on West Rio Grande street, and will go out to the park in a body.

The week end dance at the Country club Saturday evening was unusually well attended, even for this popular place, a large number of the members and their guests being present.

Mrs. L. H. Tucker was the hostess on Saturday afternoon at a "blimble party" in honor of Mrs. Mary Watson, who will leave Monday for her home in England.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and conversation and dainty refreshments were served.

On Thursday evening, March 17, Mrs. Edward Schultz, of Clint, Texas, gave a benefit concert for Prof. Kindig's son, Leo Kindig, of this city. Following the musical program, dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served at the adjoining hotel. Those in attendance from El Paso were:

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hallihan, Mr. and Mrs. H. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Schaller, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wetzig, Mrs. Ed. Schultz, Mrs. G. H. Wheeler, Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. R. J. Van Dyke; the Misses Robertson, Smith, Kendall, Dolan, Elam, Weesell, Livers, Emma Lequin, Flossie Herbert, Kindig and Pauline Dorman; Messrs. W. T. Moon, J. Walbridge, J. Thornton, P. G. Schaller, S. G. Schaller, Jim Cobb, John Carr, Ross Cumblek, W. Peterson, Elam Bro, Krebner, Levesey, Dean Clark, A. L. Wilton, Prof. Kindig and Leo Kindig.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Meyer entertained a number of little folks on Saturday, March 19, at their home, 1223 Wyoming street, the occasion being the birthday of little Hallie Faith. The table in the dining room was decorated with fresh and green vines, with the large birthday cake in the center containing the four candles. One end of the table contained a little Irish harp, with a number of candles, where each child was asked to blow one out and make a good wish for Hallie Faith. A large swing in the yard added much to the pleasure of the little folks.

Mrs. Chas. Overstreet took some pictures of the little group assembled on the lawn.

CHURCH DOINGS.

The East El Paso Presbyterian church has been presented with a beautiful silver baptismal bowl, from the Eupatian young women's bible class of the First Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's Aid and Missionary societies of the East El Paso Presbyterian church, Mrs. George Kleister was elected president of the Aid society and Mrs. Kenneth Brown chosen president of the Missionary society.

The Missionary society will meet on the first Thursday and the Aid society on the third Thursday of each month.

Mrs. C. T. Race and Mrs. Ross Bryan were the hostesses who charmingly entertained the Home Missionary society on Monday afternoon in the parlors of Trinity M. E. church.

A good musical program was given, dainty refreshments served and a delightful afternoon enjoyed.

The primary department of the Calvary Baptist church will give an entertainment Friday evening at the church, under the direction of Miss Beth Hanks, superintendent of the department. A Tom Thumb wedding and other scenes from "Mother Goose" will be included in the program.
